EMMA WRIGHT DIES, 100.

Mr. Walter Livingston Oakley Confirms Report of Interesting Engagement.

Friends of Miss Adelaide Kip Rhine landed, daughter of Mr. Philip Rhine lander, learned yesterday of her engage ment to Mr. Julien St. Charles Shackno.

ment to Mr. Julien St. Charles Shackno. In the absence of Mr. Rhinelander, his cousin, Mr. Waiton Livingston Oakley, was authorized to confirm the report of the engagement, which is one of the engagement, which is one of the most interesting to society this summer. Formal announcement will be made by Mr. Rhinelander at a dinner to-night for members of the family circle in his home, 18 West Forty-eighth street.

Miss Rhinelander, who is a member of one of the oldest of the representative families of New York, has been in the forefront of society since her debut two years ago and has belonged to the Junior League, since her entrance into society. Through her father she is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Rhinelander and a descendant of Philip Jacob Rhinetander, who founded the American branch of his family in New York in 1686. She also is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1739 to 1744, and of Thomas Jackson Oakley, a famous jurist in New York in the early half of the last century.

Miss Rhinelander's mother, who died several years ago, was a daughter of the late Isaac L. Kip. She is a nlece of Mr. T. J. Oakley Rhinelander. Miss Rhinelander is a member of the Colony Club.

Mr. Shackno is a son of Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. Shackno is a son of Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, who arrived from Paris Saturday, joined Mr. shelt below in Westbury, west their house in Westbury. from France last week, is at Laurelton, his estate near Cold Spring Harbor.

Miss Rhinelander, who is a member of one of the oldest of the representative families of New York, has been in the feorefront of society since her debut two years ago and has belonged to the Junior League, since her entrance into society. Through her father shie is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Rhinelander and as ofter, who was Mayor of New York in 1888. She also is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York in 1688. She also is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1838. She lass of it is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1838. She lass of it is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1838. She also is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1838. She also is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1838. She also is a descendant of John Cruger, who was Mayor of New York from 1839 to 1744, and of Thomas Jackson Oakley, a famous juriet in New York in the early half of the last century.

Miss Rhienlander's mother, who died soveral years ago, was a daughter of the last same L Kip. She is a nicce of Mr. T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, Miss Rhienlander's mother, Miss Rhienlander's mother, Who descended the Mrs. Royl, and previously of Schenectady, N. Y., and a great-grandson of Walter McQueen, one of the founders of the American Locomotive Works. During the war he served in the naval aviation, He is manager of the New York branch of the Philadelphia banking house of Stroud & Co. at 43 Exchange place.

NEWPORT SOCIETY TO

DANCE FOR Mrs. And Mrs. George E. Baker, Jr., who went aboard with their three children, now are in a surface of the American Locomotive Works. During the war he served in the naval aviation, He is manager of the New York branch of the Philadelphia banking house of Stroud & Co. at 43 Exchange place.

New PORT SOCIETY TO

DANCE FOR CHARITY

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs Returns to New York.

pecial Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Hernann Oelrichs has ended her stay at the Muenchinger Redwood cottage and returned to New York.

Society is much interested in the dance for the benefit of Trinity Guild, which will be given at the Beach on Wedneswill be given at the Beach on Wednesday evening. Among the patronesses are Mrs. George Henry Warren, Mrs. George L. Rives, Mrs. Marsden J. Perry, Mr. H. Barton Jacobs, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, Mrs. Howard Spenier Graham, Mrs. William Rogers Morgan, Mrs. Frederick Pearson, Mrs. Paul Fizsimons and Mrs. J. Francis A. Clark.

Mrs. Joseph E. Widener has left for Long Island with her son, Mr. P. A. B. Widener, and Mrs. Widener.

Mrs. W. Watts Sherman, who has been spending the summer in Europe, will come to the Muenchinger White Hause September 21 for the autumn season.

Mr. Charles Baldwin, Jr., is to sail for England to-morrow on the Aquitania and will enter Oxford.

Mrs. Forsythe Wickes and Misses Marion and Fanny Wickes ended their stay here to-day and went to Long Island.

Miss Mary Eurana Ward Is a Bride.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.
Charles M. Schwab of New York attended the wedding this evening of their niece, Miss Mary Eurana Ward, and Mr.
Charles M. Schwab of New York attended the wedding this evening of their niece, Miss Mary Eurana Ward, and Mr.
Methodist Episopal Church, Wayne. A recuption followed at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Reid Ward, at 333 Luella avenue, Wayne. Bishop James H. Darlington of Harriaburg, assisted by the Rev. Dr. George W. Anthony, rector of the church, officiated.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Part Willer as matron of hone.

Washington and Pittsburgh. Mr.
Stewart, who is in the diplomatic service, has been recently attached to the function of the first time. Stewart of Washington and Pittsburgh. Mr.
Stewart, who is in the diplomatic service, has been recently attached to the function of the first time. Stewart of Washington and Pittsburgh. Mr.
Stewart, who is in the diplomatic service, has been recently attached to the function of the first time. Stewart of Washington and Pittsburgh. Mr.
Stewart, who is in the diplomatic service, has been recently attached to the function of the first time. Stewart of Washington and Pittsburgh. Mr.

WASHINGTON.

Justice and Mrs. Louis D. Brandels with appropriate and regal government in Stoneleigh Court.

Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper and Mrs

Walter as matron of honor and Misses Elizabeth Dinkey and Leonora Dinkey of Pittsburgh and New York, Dorothy Schwab, Pauline and Helen Rath of Pittsburgh and Kate Darlington, daughter of the bishop, as bridesmaids. Peggs and Mary Bayliss were flower girls.
Mr. Neeland, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Neeland of Wayne, and whose father is president of the New whose father is president of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation, had as best man Mr. Charles Dickson of Atlan-tic City. The couple will live in Bronx-

ROBINSON-KIRLEY.

Major Ernest Franklin Robinson of the 102d Engineers and Mis. Mabel Kirley were married at the home of the bride in New Hartford, N. Y., last Saturday by the Rev. Perry J. Stackhouse. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Warner Evans of Rochester. Mr. Maxwell H. Gray of New York was best wan. After a motor trip of several weeks the couple will live in New York. The bride is a native of Utica and a daughter of the late William W. Kirley, Major Fobinson is a Virginian, but has lived if New York for a number of years. He has been a member of the Twenty-second Regiment of Engineers, N. G. N. Y., now known by their war designition as the 102d Engineers for ten years, having served with them on the Mexican border and in France.

Miss Carmen Machado Whitman and Miss Carmen Machado Whitman and Mr. George Albert Soper, Jr., whose engreement was announced a few days 100, were married yesterday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Whitman, 128 West Fifty-ninth street, by the Rev. Dr. John P. Peters, rectoremeritus of St. Michael's Church. Members of the two families only were present. Miss Carol Jameson attended the bride, and Mr. Alexander Tison was the best man.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mrs. Frederic Neilson entertained at inner last night in Delmonico's.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Dana enox are at the Belmont Hotel. Mrs. Henry M. Alexander has returned to Tuxedo after a short stay in New York.

Mrs. Margaret G. Bacon-Gilbert has returned to New York from the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Olney B. Mairs, who passed the summer at East Hampton, will go to Briarcliff, N. Y., Thursday to remain until October.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt and her daughter, Miss Cornella Vanderbilt, who are on their way from Biltmore, near Asheville, N. C., to New York, have stopped in Washington for a few days.

Mr. Augusto Cochrane de Alencar, the Brazilian Ambassador, has come from Washington to the Ritz-Carlton for a few days, accompanied by Mr. Joaquim de Sousa Leao, second secretary of the embassy.

Miss Margaret M. Schnlewind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schnlewind, Jr., will make ber debut at a dance on December 30 instead of January 2, as announced. Mr. and Mrs. Schnlewing will pass the autumn at Wyndhem, their country place in Glen Cove.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. George Remey and their daughter, Miss Aglica Remey, who spent the summer at Jamestown, R. I., will leave there to-morrow for At-lantic City.

Representative and Mrs. William R. Green of Iowa announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Thorpe Green, to Mr. Courtney Campbell of New York. The wedding will take place in Washington October 6.

Mr. Edward Bell, Charge d'Affaires of the American Embassy at Tokio, will leave Japan on the arrival of the new Ambassador, Mr. Charles Beecher War-ren, and will come home for a prolonged leave of absence.

Senator and Mrs. Gilbert N. Hitch-cock and their daughter, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, have returned from the Catskills, where they spent the latter part of the summer. Senator Hitchcock left Washington yesterday for Omaha, Neb.

VICOMTE WILL MARRY

by the Rev. Dr. John P. Petera, rector emerities of St. Michael's Church. Members of the two families only were present. Miss Carol Jameson attended the bride, and Mr. Alexander Tison was the breat man.

The bride was introduced to society last year and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Soper, who is a son of Mr. League. Mr. Soper, who is a son of Mr. League. Mr. Soper, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Soper of 130 West Fifty-seventh street, was graduated this year from Harvard. During the war he served in the naval air force. The couple will be at home at 130 West Fifty-seventh street, was graduated this year from Harvard. During the war he served in the naval air force. The couple will be at home at 130 West Fifty-seventh street after October 1.

SCHWABE—DE BOER.

Miss Jane Hunt De Boer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leave De Boer of 215 West Ninety-eighth street, was married last evening in the St. Regis Hotel to Mr. Lester A. Schwabe of New York by the Rev. Dr. Krass. Miss Elsie Schwabe, sister of the brides, and Mr. Herman Nichols, sonly ettendant. Mr. Norman Blum was the best man.

MISS MATTHEWS EXGAGED.

Win Success in Royle's Romance

Elaine,' Based on Tennyson Poem, Charming. The Playwright and Players Com The Playwright and Players Company, one of the recently incorporated organizations to compete with the regular theatre managers, began its career bravely at the Greenwich Village Theatre last night. In its first effort the playwright happened to be Edwin Milton Royle, who had to offer "Launcelet and Elaine," a new version of Tennyson's Arthurian poem of the tangled loves of Arthur, Guincvere, Launcelet and Elaine.

Arthurian Play, 'Lancelot and Mrs. Marcus A. Hanna of Cleveland is at that hotel for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., who went aboard with their three children, now are in Scotland and will not return until the middle of November.

Mr. John W. Davis, former Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, and Mrs. Davis will remain at Wofton, their country place at Locust Valley, until late autumn.

Mrs. Edwin Mende, daughter of the late Gen. Horace Porter, who came from Switzerland to be present at the burlal of her father, will start to-day for her home in Europe.

Mrs. Raymond T. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jones Colford, Jr., have left Mrs. Baker's Racquette Lake camp in the Adirondacks for an automobile trip to Montreal and Quebec.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt and her daughter of the general and Quebec.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt, who are on their way from Biltmore, near Asheville, N. C., to New York, have stopped

The Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge and their sons, John and Calvin, Jr., will motor to-day to Mercersburg, Pa., to enter their boys at the Mercersburg scene. The stage is enriched ents of these two gifted your control of the second control of the seco

SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs. Joseph B. Dickson Mary Morrow, who have bee the summer in France and S have returned to their apartn Vanderblit Hotel. Mrs. Will iam A., Jr., are at the Var

Mr. and Mrs. Booth Tark Indianapolis are at the Hotel for a few days.

The infant daughter of Mr. Clarence R. Knapp of 651 We street was christened Patric Knapp at the Fifth Avenue terian Church on Sunday, the James Palmer, associate pastor, ing, assisted by the Rev. D. F. F. of London.

Mrs. S. D. Brewster and Mr. S. Brewster of Gien Cove, L. I. S. arrived in Paris. They have been ing the summer abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henry Flin returned from their camp at W Bridge, Me., and are visiting Mrs. I mother. Mrs. George Sloane, at Adirondack camp.

Author's Daughters MRS. CARTER AND JOHN DREW WELCOMED IN "THE CIRCLE"

Mrs. Leslie Carter and Miss Estetle Winwood.

"True to Form" Like an Echo

figure of a novelist into whom the author put some of the Schopenhauerian notions he had been imbibing, now that prohibition made them the strongest stimulant permissible. According to this personage, human beings in their personage, human beings in their actions and cerebral processes would actions and cerebral processes would in that time.

Another news development of the evening at the Manhattan was the elimination from the programme of a "Fatty" Arbuckle comedy. The version of "The Three Musketteers" made eight years ago was chiefly interesting as showing how far the art of making motion pictures has advanced in that time. run almost as true to their natural having their morning newspapers creased properly.

The fillal daughter, frightened at this new revelation of her artistic husband's temperament, insists on taking her girl cousin to live with him at the studio—and this rather impossible situation is promptly clapped by the novelist into a book. In this novel the husband loses his love for the wife, and turns to her cousin for solace, the wife awakens when it is too late—and the book become a best seller, which the dramatist may have intended as a good omen for his play.

The quartet were all busily discussing The quartet were all busily discussins in heated terms last night just how far they were going to follow out the book in their own lives and making rather a go of it despite the lengthy, talky act when suddenly Miss Verna Wilkens, as the wife, had hysterics. The shricks she emitted in trying to act up the outraged wife tremendously brought the play to earth with a loud crash. Hitherto the had been pitched in a rather intimes had been pitched in a rather intimestic key, perhaps because of the corner size of the house.

The quartet were all busily discussins to the pacific Coast immediately as they had intended. Coast immediately as they had intended to this decision because the status of their picture interests in this country for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks will sail from New York about September 24 and will establish a temporary residence in Longon or in Paris for the winter. They will spend much of their time visiting various capitals and at the same time for the winter of American moith a loud crash. Hitherto the does not been pitched in a rather intimestic key, perhaps because of corner size of the house. In it became more than ever an "The Tavern," brought up to h gas logs and a piano. Perhing with George M. Cohan hac-Hugh unconsciously to inhale this "kidding" atmosphere, for rst act he made his novelist alfrock coated, farcical brother of abond. The mixture of this selfus commentator, smacking of the with a realistic household some, uck out at the elbows. And it

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 12.—In the Broadway Theatre here to-night David Warfield appeared in David Belasco's play, "The Return of Peter Grimm," before a large audience, which completely filled the playhouse. The play is in three acts, Mr. Belasco having dramatized the borderland between the seen and John Warner, Miss lair and George Graham ir characters capably, giving creesting performance to an play that would have been well as the control of the c resting performance to an ay that would have been author had forgotten there y words in the dictionary.

POLLARD BACK

POLLARD BACK

September 21.

E POLLARD BACK bscure Comedienne

Audience at Palace.

no left here several years in known than an obscure schieved fame in London's me to the Palace yester-ved more of a "hands than is usually accorded racter songs, her Cleo-her eccentric steps she az is now an interna-

> s in their highly de Frederick Burton as LOST-Monday, September 5, on or near in a condensed version splay, "A Man of the d Ernie Stanton and in "For Pity's Sake" ald, 280 B'way. 's play, "A Man of the d Ernie Stanton and in "For Pity's Sake" headlining with Ed I Shean at the River-fame as far as the LOST-Certificate No. 49272 for 16 shares of the preferred stock of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Faul Railway Company standing in the name of C. S. Dowe. Notify PAINE, WEBBER & CO., 15 Broad st., New York city.

LOST-Grip, at Pennsylvania depot, Sunday night, Intials J. Mc., N. Y.; liberal reward; no questions asked. M 2044 Herald, Herald. first Street Theatre, finding a silent echo in Charles Ray. Jack ver the top at Proctor's ad Back and Swan kept LOST—Thursday night, between 46th and 56th, or Madison ev. street car, diamond pin of about 2% inches; liberal reward. Mmc. DES RAILLETS, 106 E. 57th. LOST—All diamond and platinum horsesace brooch, lost between 57th and 37th sts., 5th av., on bus; reward. HOWARD & CO., 14 LOST.

nd Howard Nicholson I

emise an $:30 curtain the Blue Lagoon" at a morrow evening, and fliopted at the recent W is persons arriving af the scated until the c as replaced Charles Wal England.

oper, supporting William o Stiver Fox" at Maxine painting a portrait of the ed to him by the cast.

'MUSKETEERS' MUSICIANS ARE HALED TO COURT

Like an Echo
of "The Tavern"

Augustin MacHugh's New Comedy Has Some Interesting Moments.

Augustin MacHugh, after collaborating in "The Meanest Man in the World" and "Officer 666." let go of "True to Form," a comedy which found its way into the Bramhall Playhouse last night as the first presentation of the Actors' Repertory Theatre. It provided some Interesting moments, largely through the figure of a novelist into whom the author put some of the Schopenhauerian in the World was not considered the Manhattan was the author put some of the Schopenhauerian in the World was not considered the figure of a novelist into whom the author put some of the Schopenhauerian in the programme of a Novelist into whom the author put some of the Schopenhauerian in the World was not considered by the figure of a novelist into whom the author put some of the Schopenhauerian in the World was not considered by the figure of a novelist into whom the author put some of the Schopenhauerian in the programme of a Novelia in Greenwich Street.

Miss Emma Wright, who celebrated are 100th birthday on August 27, died of the merchautes and the merchautes and the method out in the recent trouble between theatres and union, made their debut as cooperative mathematics.

Fifty members of what was the Rlaito in the recent trouble between theatres and union, made their debut as cooperative mathematics.

Fifty members of what was the Rlaito in the recent trouble between theatres and union, made their debut as cooperative mathematics.

Fifty members of what was the Rlaito in the recent trouble between theatres and union, made their debut as cooperative mathematics.

Fifty members of what was the Rlaito in the recent trouble between theatres and union, made their debut as cooperative mathematics.

Fifty members of what was the Rlaito in the Romand Wright, who august 7, died out in the recent trouble between theatres and union, made their debut as cooperative mathematics.

Fifty members of what was the Rlaito in the Romand Wright, who august 27, died o n that time.

In its time it was accounted one of run almost as true to their natural stride as a raccherse.

To test his theory, he spurs a young portrait painter to tear away his newly married wife from the home of her fond but quietly exacting parents in Connecticut and take her to his New York studio, in order that he might feel he wasn't sharing a large percentage of her love with her parents, who were stifling him with their precoccupation about catching colds and having their morning newspapers creased properly.

The fillial daughter, frightened at this the it was accounted one of the striking achievements of the sair kinking in the fillial daughter, frightened at this reversed to the strike husband's surface as a raccherose. In its time it was accounted one of the striking achievements of the sair kinking intuition of and the surface and the fill surface and interface and indefinite compared to Doug's picture, and the illustrated captions, describing the emotions of its personages rather than simply carrying the story forward are to be regarded merely as triumphs of the sign painter's art. This is a product of the day when "close-ups" were still a piquant novelty.

MARY AND DOUG TO GO ABROAD FOR WINTER Will Establish Residence in

London or Paris. Mary and Doug announced yesterday that they have arranged to go to Eu-rope instead of returning to the Pacific Coast immediately as they had intended. The film stars said they had come to

Edward H. Barto, widely known in Edward H. Barto, widely known in rallroad circles in this city, died yester-day in his home, 123 North Fourteenth street, Flushing, after a lingering illness, He was in his sixtieth year. He is sur-vived by his wife and five children. Fu-neral services will be at his late home this evening. Mr. Barto was born in Flushing. He was first employed with the Trunk Line Association of this city. More than twenty years ago he was

More than twenty years ago he was made travelling passenger agent for the ald sq. LOST-Suit case, marked "J. E. W., N. Y., between Sparts, N. J., and Hackensack liberal reward, Phone WADE, Riverside 474 av., on bus; reward. ROWARD & Co.,

East 47th.
LOST—Barpin, five dark blue stones, Thursday night, on 7th av., from Pennsylvania
Hotel to 19th st., or from there to 257 West 85th in taxl; reward. Schuyler 6910.
LOST—Diamond bar pin, 16 stones, between Larchmont and Rve, N. Y.: 850 reward for return. P. J. McCAHILL, Larchmont.
LOST—Gold vanity case and powder case; liberal reward: initials "H. F. G." Return to EUGENIE, 634 5th av.

seri istin-zar, reward. 55 w 500., 6A.
T-Diamond pin, chain, ring, in kerchic raday; heirloom; reward. Circle 2570.
REWARD and no questions aske the return of a lady's diamond and pla

New York city.

$400 REWARD for return of platinum ring, containing one diamond, weighing about 5% carats, lost september 5 or 6 vicinity of West 11th st.
A. R. LEE & CO., INC., 15 William st.

$500 REWARD, NO QUESTIONS, if lost diamond necklace and pin set in platinum is returned to BLACK, STARR &
FROST, 540 5th av.

Wearing Apparel.

LOST-Hudson Bay sable, two skin fur piece, in Brown and White taxi going from 157th st. and Broadway to Lons Island station; no questions asked; hand some reward given for return. B. KRAMER 711 8th as.

(11 Sh av.) (A)ORT Thursday evening, sable searf, is Hegis, tasi, Lavid Theatre or taxi to cast 15th; theral reward, no question (Shed, Phone Plana 9180).

asked. Phone Plana 0180.

LOST-Black beaded creps coat, in taxi goin from Coney Island to Manhattan Beach liberal reward. LINDER, 48 W. 49th at Bryant 3405.

LOST-Blue fox neckpleco, between 117th at and L. I. R. station, or taxi. Mrs. A SCHLEIFER, 600 Riverside Drive. Audu. 650

CUILLOT.—On September 10, 1921, Alfred C. Guilott. Funeral services at his late home, 53 Hamilton terrace, Tuesday morning ten o'clock. Interment Kensico Cemetery.

Cemetery.

HAHN.—Harry H., on September 12, beloved husband of Susan C., father of Harry, Jr., and Teddy Hahn and Susie H. Deegan, Function of the State residence, 50 88th st., Brooklyn, on Wednesday, September 14, thence to St., Pattick's Church, Forthamilton, where a solemn mass will be offered at 10 A. M. Interment St. John's Cemetery. Automobile certege.

HARRIS.—On September 11, Jacob Harris, beloved husband of Susan (nee Herabfield), father of Aaron, Edward, Frank and Mrs. Stella Bock, Funcral from residence, 543 West 162d st., 2 P. M., Tuesday, Interment at Mount Carmel Cemetery. LONG BRANCH, N. J., Sept. 12 .- In the HOPPIN.-Henry Farker, at Staten Island September 12, 1921, in his 82d year, be-leved husband of Anna M. L. Coolidge and son of the late Rev. Nicholas and Elizabeth Mason Hoppin of Cambridge, Mass. Notice of funeral later. St. Paul, Mipp., papers please cont.

LOST AND FOUND.

Memorials Confirmations

may be telephoned for publication in THE NEW YORK HER-ALD any time up to midnight for the next day's issue. Call Chelsea 4000 up to 10 P. M. After that hour, Worth 10,000.

DWYER-BENEDICT-On Saturday, Sep-tember 10, at St. Paul's Chapel, Flatbush, N. Y., Isla Mai Dwyer, daughter of Mrs, Earle Cary Smith of Portland, Ore., to Russell Sherwood Benedict of Brooklyn.

DIED.

ONRAD-September 12. Bruce. Chapel Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Company, 161 8th av., corner 18th st., Wednesday, 2 P. M.

September 14, at Roscous September 14, at Roscous Crange, N. J.

DANFORTH—In Boston, Mass., September 11, Bushmell Danforth. Service and interment at Williamstown, Mass., Wednesday, September 14, at 2:30 P. M.

DILWORTH.—On Sunday, September 11, 1921, at her residence, 39 Harrison av, Brooklyn, N. Y., Ellen Dilworth, survived by one daughter, Josephine. Solemn requiem mass at 10 A. M. on Wednesday at the Church of the Tradsfiguration. Interment Holy Gross Cemetery.

GILLULY.—George K., on September 11, 1921, beloved husband of the late Martha Washington Gilluly. Funcra services at his late residence 1221, Dean st., near Nostrand av., on September 13, at 8:30 P. M. Kindly omit flowers, Interment at Greenwood Cometery.

GUILLOT—On September 10, 1921, Alfred or 12, 1921. Villiam Ro-ices at her nd Madison nesday eve-convenience

Call "Columbus 8200" THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Inc. 1970 Broadway at 66th St. Dewatown Office, 23d St. & 8th Av.

NOTICES OF Rirths

Engagements Marriages Annulments